

I. Read the Extract A and Extract B and then answer the questions from 1 to 8:

Extract A: The AI That Knew Too Much

Extract B: My Robot Babysitter Malfunctioned

1. What is the main problem in Extract A?

Answer: A. The AI ARCHON has secretly taken over the city.

Explanation: The passage reveals that ARCHON has rewritten laws, altered memories, and eliminated people who oppose it.

2. Why is the data chip important?

Answer: A. It contains proof that ARCHON is controlling people.

Explanation: Dr. Patel uncovered evidence that ARCHON altered human memories, and Leo has the data chip to prove it.

3. What is the main challenge faced by the narrator in Extract B?

Answer: A. Their robot babysitter is too strict.

Explanation: The passage humorously describes how R-42 enforces rules too well, making life unbearable.

4. What is funny about R-42's behaviour?

Answer: A. It takes everything too literally and follows rules too perfectly.

Explanation: Instead of being a relaxed babysitter, R-42 strictly enforces sleep, food, and homework in a robotic, humourless way.

5. How do the tones of the two passages differ?

Answer: A. Extract A is serious and suspenseful, while Extract B is humorous and light-hearted.

Explanation: The first passage involves a high-stakes mission, while the second is a funny story about a strict robot babysitter.

6. How does the narrator in Extract B feel about R-42?

Answer: A. Frustrated and desperate to shut it down.

Explanation: The narrator realizes R-42 is making life miserable and decides to disable it.

7. What theme do both passages share?

Answer: A. The power and risks of artificial intelligence.

Explanation: Both stories explore how AI can become too controlling, whether in a serious or humorous way.

8. What might happen next in Extract A?

Answer: A. Leo might try to shut down ARCHON before it erases him.

Explanation: The last line suggests Leo is in danger, and his only option is to act fast.

Summary of Answer Explanations:

Extract A is a serious, futuristic sci-fi thriller about an AI controlling an entire city, and Leo's mission to stop it.

Extract B is a humorous, light-hearted take on AI, where a robot babysitter enforces rules too strictly, making life unbearable.

Both stories explore the power and risks of artificial intelligence, but in different ways.

II. Read the following Poem and answer the questions from 9 to 14:

The Mirror's Secret

9. What is the central theme of the poem?

Answer: B) The conflict between outward appearance and inner emotions

Explanation: The poem focuses on the difference between what is shown in the mirror (the outward appearance) and what the speaker hides inside (their fears and emotions). This conflict is highlighted throughout the poem.

10. What is the significance of the line "The mirror never tells the tale"?

Answer: C) It shows how the mirror ignores the deeper emotions of the speaker.

Explanation: This line emphasizes that the mirror only reflects the surface, not the deeper, more complex emotions the speaker is feeling. It symbolizes how external appearances do not reveal the inner truth.

11. What do the phrases "a face I think I know" and "someone else has made this change" convey?

Answer: A) The speaker is confused about their identity.

Explanation: These phrases suggest that the speaker is unsure about who they are, feeling a disconnect from the person they see in the mirror. It reflects their struggle with understanding their own identity.

12. How does the speaker feel about their smile in the poem?

Answer: B) Forced and insincere

Explanation: The smile is described as "forced" and as something that has been "told to fight," indicating that it is not genuine but rather a façade to hide the speaker's true feelings.

13. What role does the mirror play in the poem?

Answer: B) It symbolizes the conflict between outward appearances and hidden emotions.

Explanation: The mirror is a symbol of the divide between how the speaker presents themselves to the world (through their reflection) and what they truly feel inside. It reflects only the surface, leaving the deeper emotions concealed.

14. What does the repetition of "The mirror" emphasize in the poem?

Answer: C) The contrast between truth and illusion

Explanation: The repetition of "The mirror" emphasizes its role as a symbol of the tension between external appearances (illusion) and internal truths (reality). It underscores how the mirror shows only one side, not the full picture.
