

I. Read the text below and then answer the questions from 1 to 8:

Answer Key and Explanations

1. The correct answer is B. Mia feels excited and curious as she steps into the old library, drawn in by the unique atmosphere. A is incorrect because Mia is not uncomfortable. C is incorrect because she is not disappointed. D is incorrect because Mia does not feel anxious.
2. The correct answer is B. Mia notices that the books have rough textures and old leather covers, emphasizing the age and history of the library. A is incorrect because the books are not modern. C is incorrect because the books are described as old and worn, not in perfect condition. D is incorrect because the books are not arranged in an easily readable way.
3. The correct answer is B. The librarian knows Mia's name, even though they have never met before, which makes Mia feel intrigued. A is incorrect because the librarian recognizes Mia. C is incorrect because the librarian is warm and welcoming. D is incorrect because the librarian offers a deeper explanation rather than a simple tour.
4. The correct answer is C. The librarian suggests that the library has a unique way of finding the right story for the right person. A is incorrect because the library is not just about local history. B is incorrect because the books are not magical in a literal sense. D is incorrect because the library is a place of stories, not one for replacing books.
5. The correct answer is B. Mia feels a strange connection to the old book, as though it holds answers to questions not yet asked. A is incorrect because she is intrigued by the book. C is incorrect because Mia is not scared of the book. D is incorrect because Mia does not dismiss the book.
6. The correct answer is C. The librarian emphasizes that the library is a place where stories never truly end and find their way back to those ready to listen. A is incorrect because the library's value is not based on money. B is incorrect because the books are not alive. D is incorrect because the library's uniqueness lies in the stories, not librarian training.
7. The correct answer is B. Mia leaves the library feeling wonder and curiosity, now understanding that the library holds more than just books—it holds stories. A is incorrect because Mia does not forget the visit. C is incorrect because Mia feels intrigued rather than frustrated. D is incorrect because Mia feels clear about the experience.
8. The correct answer is B. The main theme of the passage is the magic and power of stories, as exemplified by the mysterious library. A is incorrect because the passage is not about rare books. C is incorrect because becoming a librarian is not the focus. D is incorrect because the passage centres on stories, not just visiting a place.

II. Read the following Poem and answer the questions from 9 to 14:

Waves of Change

Multiple-Choice Questions:

9. What do the waves symbolize in the poem?
Correct Answer: B) Change and transformation
 Explanation: The waves are a metaphor for change, as they shape the land and remind the speaker that change is inevitable and continuous.
10. What is implied by "each wave a promise, each wave a ghost"?
Answer: B) Waves bring hope and memories of the past
 Explanation: The waves are described as both promises (future possibilities) and ghosts (memories of the past), suggesting that they carry both hope and nostalgia.
11. What does "we try to hold, but the tide pulls away" suggest?
Answer: B) The speaker struggles to hold onto things that are slipping away
 Explanation: The line expresses the difficulty of holding onto something as time and circumstances change, much like trying to resist the pull of the tide.
12. How does the phrase "like time itself, it cannot stay" relate to the poem's theme?
Answer: C) Time, like the waves, is constantly moving and cannot be stopped
 Explanation: The comparison to time reinforces the idea that both time and waves are forces beyond our control, constantly moving and changing.
13. What is the significance of waiting for the waves to return?
Answer: C) It symbolizes hope for change and renewal
 Explanation: The speaker waits for the waves to return, symbolizing hope that change will come again, reinforcing the idea that change is a constant part of life.
14. What is the main theme of the poem?
Correct Answer: B) The inevitability of change and the need to adapt
 Explanation: The poem emphasizes that change is constant, and we must learn to accept and adapt to it.

III. Read the text below, which consists of few paragraphs (questions 15 – 20). For questions 15 – 20, choose the option (A – G) which best summarises each paragraph. There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

The Evolution of Transportation

15. Answer: B – The impact of ocean exploration on global awareness

Paragraph 15 talks about the early foundations of transportation and how advancements have shaped human society, including trade and connection.

16. Answer: A – The role of railroads in the industrial revolution

Paragraph 16 discusses the transformative impact of railroads on long-distance travel, economies, and societies during the Industrial Revolution.

17. Answer: C – The transformation of road travel in the 20th century

Paragraph 17 focuses on how the invention of the automobile changed travel, with mass production making cars accessible to many people.

18. Answer: D – The early history of air travel

Paragraph 18 talks about the development of commercial air travel, mentioning the first commercial jet flight in 1952.

19. Answer: B – The future of electric and autonomous vehicles

Paragraph 19 mentions the rise of electric vehicles and autonomous driving technologies as part of modern transportation.

20. Answer: F – The innovations in transportation leading to faster travel

Paragraph 20 highlights potential future innovations like high-speed trains and flying cars, which could revolutionize travel efficiency and speed.

---

IV. Read the four extracts below and answer the questions 21 – 30, choose the option (A, B, C or D) which you think best answers the question.

Extract 1: The Value of True Friendship.

Extract 2: Navigating Conflicts in Friendships

Extract 3: The Impact of Friendships on Personal Growth

Extract 4: How Friendships Evolve Over Time

Multiple-Choice Questions

21. Which extract describes how friendship contributed to personal growth?

B) Extract 3 – It describes how friendship contributed to personal growth through encouragement and stepping out of comfort zones.

22. Which extract discusses the challenges of resolving conflicts in friendships?

C) Extract 2 – This extract discusses resolving conflicts and rebuilding trust after a falling out.

23. Which extract focuses on the emotional connection between friends?

B) Extract 1 – Focuses on the emotional connection and understanding between friends during tough times.

24. Which extract explains how friendships evolve over time?

D) Extract 4 – Talks about how friendships can evolve and change over time

25. Which extract highlights the importance of supporting friends during tough times?

A) Extract 1 – Highlights supporting friends through difficult times, such as the breakup of the narrator's parents.

26. Which extract mentions how a misunderstanding affected a friendship?

B) Extract 2 – Describes how a misunderstanding affected the friendship between the narrator and Ava.

27. Which extract describes a moment of change in a friendship?

C) Extract 4 – Describes a moment of change in the friendship, when the narrator and Mia drifted apart and then reconnected.

28. Which extract offers advice about maintaining strong friendships?

D) Extract 2 – Offers advice about maintaining strong friendships by working through conflicts.

29. Which extract explores the feeling of losing a close friend?

B) Extract 2 – Discusses the feeling of losing a close friend due to a conflict.

30. Which extract highlights the value of honesty in friendships?

A) Extract 2 – Highlights the importance of honesty in friendships during the resolution of conflict.